

Earth day

Earth day is celebrated every year with great zeal .Children potted a plant and made beautiful posters and headgear to show their love for mother Earth. Students also made amazing and creative wall hangings and cards with best out of waste things.

