

World wind day

Every year the day is celebrated to explore the power of wind energy .Kids made paper windmills and had a fun time enjoying the game .Students also made posters related to wind energy.

