

Raksha Bandhan

Brothers and sisters are like sparkles who always glow with love and affection.

On the auspicious occasion of Raksha Bandhan several activities were organized on the virtual platform to make children understand the true essence of the festival and sacred relation of a brother and sister.

Children made beautifully decorated eco-friendly rakhi with clay and grains. A special assembly was conducted where children recited poems and danced on the rakhi songs.

