

Baisakhi Celebration

Festivals bring joy and happiness .Keeping up with the tradition of celebrating the festival of rich harvest across the lush greenery , children of nursery wing joined hands and participated with great gaiety and fervor in the celebration of Baisakhi festival . They were briefed about various aspects of the festival .They created beautiful corn and head gears of Punjabi boys . Similarly preschool children enjoyed coloring a Dhol and decorated it with their thumb impressions.They had lots of fun dancing with their teachers and friends.

