

BAISAKHI CELEBRATION

A special musical assembly was conducted for students wherein children danced on bhangra beats dressed up as punjabi boys and girls. Students were briefed about the importance of the festival, followed by discussion on the festival of Harvest. Children were involved in various craft activities like making a head gear, cotton dabbing in the corns cutout and finger printing

