

International Tiger's Day

Global Tiger Day is celebrated every year on July 29th as a way to raise awareness about this magnificent but endangered big cat. Children were explained about the reason of extinction of the tigers due to deforestation. Activities like finger puppets and face mask, slogan of save tigers were conducted for the students to mark their contribution to the day.

