

JANMASHTAMI

The students of D.A.V. Public school celebrated the birth of Lord Krishna, one of the most powerful and famous incarnations of Lord Vishnu with great zeal. The students of came traditionally dressed as Radha. A shirt cultural program was organized where students presented dance performances and a short role play. The students were overjoyed when to see the 'Dahi Handi' (pot of butter & curd)

