National Technology Day

This day represents a pathway to the future. On this day we celebrate the achievements of some of our best scientists and innovators and their achievements in shaping technology into usable commercial products that change the lives of people . To understand this, students of nursery wing did a role play activity in which they dressed up as various gadgets like mobile, TV, camera etc and spoke a few lines about its importance.