

The students of class 4B, 5A, 5B conducted a special assembly on the solar system in which they acquainted the students with the characteristics of each planet of the solar system. It was followed by a quiz. The students answered the questions based on the performed content. It proved to be a promising way of delivering the knowledge to the students.

<https://youtu.be/yWEN8gD9VwM>