

WORLD EARTH DAY

To sensitize the children to become the savers for environmental conservation, Earth Day was organized wherein students of nursery wing shared their views on how they can be a helping hand to save the blue Planet. They were explained about the importance of keeping the earth green and the sky blue by planting trees, maintaining a pollution free environment and making small changes in their day today life to help save Earth.

