

World Engineers Day

Engineers' Day is observed on September 15 to mark the birth anniversary of M Visvesvaraya, a civil engineer and Diwan of Mysore known for his pioneering works.

Children from class Preschool to II made beautiful and innovative buildings and structures using blocks ,wooden clamps ,waste cardboard boxes and cards .They enjoyed making different things with their little hands to show their construction skills and felt proud to do the role play of an engineer.

