

Report on “Be a Master mind”

On 14th July 2025, DAV Public School, Gole Market organized a Maths activity titled “Be a Master Mind” for students, aimed at enhancing their problem-solving skills under time constraints. A carefully curated set of mathematical questions was provided to the students, which they had to solve within a stipulated time. The activity focused on testing both speed and accuracy, encouraging students to think quickly and precisely. All participants engaged with great enthusiasm, showcasing their logical thinking and competitive spirit. The event successfully fostered a love for mathematics while promoting analytical and time management skills among the students.
