

WORLD EARTH DAY

A special Morning Assembly

DAV Public School, Gole Market celebrated Earth Day on 22.04.26 with a series of awareness performances. Students presented a mime contrasting the scene of the Earth before tree and after deforestation, highlighting the environmental impact of cutting trees. This was followed by a skit that delivered a powerful message on the urgent need for conservation and sustainable practices. The event successfully instilled a sense of responsibility towards protecting our planet among the students.
